The Big Race

One day, the sports teacher Mr. Saleem announced, "Sports Day is drawing near. All those who want to take part in the race, come here." Everyone, except Adeel, was excited.

When Haroon asked him the reason, he replied, "I have never participated before in sports." Mr. Saleem heard them talking. He came forward and told Adeel, "Adeel, how will you realise your potential without trying? Do not be shy. There is always a first time for everything."

At home, Adeel told his mother, "I might fall and get injured. People will make fun of me if I lose." His mother replied, "What if the birds assume that they cannot fly and never try? You will never know your strengths if you do not try."

Next day Adeel went to Mr. Saleem and told him, "Sir, I will take part in the race." Mr. Saleem appreciated him and his classmates also motivated him.

On the sports Day, the race took place. To everyone's surprise, Adeel came first. Haroon came second. While receiving the prize, he smiled and thought, "It's good that I participated otherwise I would have never known that I am a good runner."

Moral: Try new things with confidence to discover your strengths.
